

ALMA MATER

Down In Antelope Valley
With Its Skies So Blue
Lies our Alma Mater
Beneath the Golden Hue.
With its Snow-Capped Mountains
And Its Poppies Fair,
We Know Our Fondest Memories
Will Always Linger There.

ANTELOPE VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL CELEBRATES ITS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Students of 1926

In 1912, the people of Lancaster and the Antelope Valley looked to the future as they approved the creation of a new high school for their children. As the 20th Century progressed, the school grew and evolved. It hosted the early Antelope Valley College in 1929. During the 1950s a new campus was built giving us the campus we know today.

After a hundred years, the school remains the flagship of the Antelope Valley Union High School District which includes twelve high schools, hundreds of teachers and staff and 23,600 students from communities across the Antelope Valley.

THE CENTENNIAL WEEKEND

The Antelope Valley High School Alumni Association is currently planning a 3 day weekend for our High School's 100th Anniversary.

Friday, October 12, 2012—Homecoming Game. All alumni are welcome to this special event at Mays Field-Brent Newcomb Stadium. Kickoff at 7pm

Saturday, October 13, 2012— Open House Tour of the high school from 10am to 3pm. Main Reunion Event—Poppy Pavilion, New AV Fairgrounds 5pm to midnight.

Sunday, October 14, 2012. The AV Fairgrounds will host the 85th Annual Old Timers Barbecue. This is a separately sponsored event and a separate fee is required to attend.
